

Dear Representative,

I urge you and your colleagues in Congress to promote a diverse, balanced, and competitive media. Please stop the FCC rule change on June 2.

I am deeply disturbed by the homogenization of the media that I have witnessed in several markets. This has been dangerously apparent in the coverage of the recent war -- to listen to the radio or watch television, even in the San Francisco Bay Area, the center of the anti-war movement, one would think that this was the work of a few, fringe individuals. Having been there, I was shocked to see how media portrayals differed from reality.

We allow media companies to use the airwaves in exchange for their assurance that they're serving the public interest, and it's the FCC's job to make sure that's so. Please hold the FCC to its mandate and oppose the rule change.
